

Duration = 2'17"

Dedicated to My Daughter,
M^{RS} GEORGE TALBOT WOOLLEY, Melbourne, Australia.

Another Song

Words & Melody by William Downing Evans
(1811-1897)

The Accompaniment by James Conway Brown
(1838-1908)

Andantino [♩ = 100]

mp

Red. * Red. * Red. *

4 mp con express.

1. Oh! sing an-o-ther song, Like that you
2. Oh! sing an-o-ther song, With like a -
3. Oh! sing an-o-ther song Of charm-ing

f mp

Red. * Red. *

9

sang so long a - go Whose strains in mem - 'ry, still pro - long Those bi - ding joy re - plete The past re - turn - eth all a - long Give mel - o - dy for me, I would that life like Art were long, That thoughts of love you so well know. In dreams I of - ten hear Their for the fu - ture tones as sweet. Com - ming - ling all shall live Like I might e - ver dwell with thee, But sev - 'rance here be - low We

13

*Red. * Red. **

17

rit.
e - choes, which have ne - ver died They fall in mu - sic Na - ture's voi - ces heard of yore end, With new re - frains her must en - dure and wait life's end, There's har - mo - ny in

*Red. * Red. **

20

a tempo
on mine ear Like lin - nets notes of e - ven - tide, Oh!
min - strels give To cheer and glad - den e - ver - more. Oh!
heav'n we know In which our voi - ces yet shall blend. Oh!

*Red. **

23

ad lib.

sing an - o - ther song, Oh! sing an - o - ther song.
 sing an - o - ther song, Oh! sing an - o - ther song.
 sing an - o - ther song, Oh! sing an - o - ther song.

* Leg. * Leg. * Leg. * Leg. *

27

f Leg. *

Benjamin Robert Tubb, Finale Engraver
 Monday, 12 September 2011